HMDC Presents...

P5 Positions: Legal Committee (Sixth Committee)

Topic: Cyberwarfare Case Studies

The P5 are the five permanent members of the Security Council: China, France, Russia, the United Kingdom and the United States. Each can veto a Security Council decision, so their views matter a lot. This page shows only what our sources say; rows that start with "Check:" are for you to research.

Member	What our sources show	Source
All five permanent members	None of them called a vote: the cybercrime convention was adopted without a vote.	President of the UN General Assembly
China	Check: read China's own statements in the working group.	UN Office for Disarmament Affairs
Russia	Check: read Russia's own statements in the working group.	UN Office for Disarmament Affairs
United States	Check: read the United States' own statements.	UN Office for Disarmament Affairs
United Kingdom and France	Check: read their own statements.	UN Office for Disarmament Affairs

HOW TO USE THIS PAGE

If your country is not a P5 member, find the P5 member closest to your view and use its support to win votes. If your country is a P5 member, remember that other delegates will watch your vote closely.
