Resolution Writing Guide: DISEC

Drone Surveillance and Privacy

This guide gives you the opening words that start every clause of a resolution, and it shows one example from this committee's sample resolution. A resolution is the final product of the committee, so clear clauses help your ideas get votes. Read the example first, then practise writing your own clauses in the boxes at the end.

THE TWO KINDS OF CLAUSES

Preambulatory clauses come first. They say why the committee is acting. Each one starts with an italic opening phrase and ends with a comma.

Operative clauses come second. They say what the committee will do. Each one is numbered, starts with a verb, and ends with a semicolon. The last operative clause ends with a period.

WHAT THIS COMMITTEE CAN DO

DISEC is a committee of the General Assembly. Its resolutions are recommendations, so your operative clauses should urge, recommend, call upon and request, not order.

ONE WORKED EXAMPLE

This is the opening line of the resolution: The Disarmament and International Security Committee, Every clause after it continues that sentence.

> Noting with concern Human Rights Council resolutions 50/21 (2022) and 58/23 (2025), which express concern about "aerial surveillance vehicles" watching peaceful protesters and human rights defenders,

The starter Noting with concern tells the room why the committee cares. The rest of the clause names the fact, rule or earlier decision, and the comma at the end shows that more clauses follow.

> 1. Calls upon member states to ensure that facial recognition and other biometric identification from drones are never used for mass surveillance or arbitrarily against people at peaceful assemblies;

The verb Calls upon tells the room what the committee will do. The words after it say who acts and what they should do, and the semicolon shows that another operative clause comes next.

YOUR TURN

Write one clause of each kind for your own country. Use a starter from the table, and make sure your operative clause asks for something this committee is allowed to do.

Preambulatory clause (starter, then the reason, then a comma):

_____ _____

_____,

Operative clause (number, verb, then the action, then a semicolon):

1. _____ _____

_____;

The example clauses come from the HMDC sample draft resolution for this committee, which lists its sources in full. Resolutions are written live in committee with your bloc, so use this guide to practise, not to copy.
