HMDC Presents...

P5 Positions: Social, Humanitarian and Cultural Committee (SOCHUM)

Topic: Role of Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs)

The P5 are the five permanent members of the Security Council: China, France, Russia, the United Kingdom and the United States. Each can veto a Security Council decision, so their views matter a lot. This page shows only what our sources say; rows that start with "Check:" are for you to research.

Member	What our sources show	Source
China	Called the vote against the 2015 human rights defenders resolution and opposed it.	International Service for Human Rights
Russia	Called the vote with China and opposed the 2015 resolution.	International Service for Human Rights
United States	Check: not stated in our sources. Read the United States' own Third Committee statements.	International Service for Human Rights
United Kingdom	Check: not stated in our sources. Read the UK's own statements.	International Service for Human Rights
France	Check: not stated in our sources. Read France's own statements.	International Service for Human Rights

HOW TO USE THIS PAGE

If your country is not a P5 member, find the P5 member closest to your view and use its support to win votes. If your country is a P5 member, remember that other delegates will watch your vote closely.

SOURCES

According to International Service for Human Rights, "General Assembly adopts important resolution on human rights defenders in face of opposition from China and Russia", November 24, 2015. https://www.ishr.ch/news/general-assembly-adopts-important-resolution-human-rights-defenders-face-opposition-china-and